

Canadian Right of Way

Education Foundation

2019 Donation / Pledge Form
Board of Directors Meeting
Portland, Oregon
Wednesday, June 12, 2019

Donations to the CRWEF are used to create new courses, update existing courses and provide professional development opportunities to members of the Right of Way and Infrastructure real estate profession. Education is the cornerstone of what we do, and it must be continually updated and renewed to maintain a high degree of professionalism for the various disciplines involved in the profession. The mission of the Canadian Right of Way Education Foundation is to contribute to the advancement of the profession through the enhancement of education and training opportunities that will elevate and increase the profile of this body of work to a professional standard that is recognized domestically and internationally.
